Amritsar Declaration

- Made at: Sixth Ministerial Conference of the Heart of Asia - Istanbul Process (HoA-IP) in Amritsar on 04 Dec 2016
- Chaired by: Shri Arun Jaitley and Mr. Salahuddin Rabbani (Foreign Minister of Afghanistan)
- Inaugurated by: Shri Narendra Modi and Mr. Mohammad Ashraf Ghani (President of Afghanistan)
- Participating countries: Afghanistan, Azerbaijan, China, India, Iran, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Pakistan, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Tajikistan, Turkey, Turkmenistan, the United Arab Emirates, and the United Nations.
- Guest countries: Austria, Bulgaria, Latvia and Uzbekistan
- Salient Features of Amritsar Declaration
  - Recognized that terrorism is the gravest challenge that the Heart of Asia region and the rest of the international community faces. It recognized the necessity of taking serious measures to address recruitment of youth to extremist and terrorist networks.
  - It undertook to develop a regional approach to counter radicalization by tasking relevant experts from the fields of security, education and local governance to meet in the first half of 2017 to identify key areas to be addressed for developing this regional approach and provide recommendations to be presented to the Senior Officials Meeting of the HoA-IP in the first half of 2017 for further action on this critical issue.
  - It expressed concern about the increase in production and cultivation of opium in Afghanistan, the volume of drug trafficking and demand in the HoA Region and beyond. In this regard, it recognized that it was essential to integrate a comprehensive approach in addressing the drug problem of Afghanistan and the HoA region.
  - It urged all Afghan Taliban groups and all other armed groups to enter into peace talks with the Government of Afghanistan and also urged all those countries in the region and beyond who have leverages and influence to help bring the Taliban to the negotiation table.
